

A-Z fundraising ideas

We have lots of exciting fundraising ideas for you to help your school raise money for The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity. There are many ways you can help people with cancer and have fun at the same time. Together we can help build a future beyond cancer for everyone.

a

Aerobics marathon

Get the whole school involved and get fit at the same time as raising funds.

Art competition

Pay to enter and ask your art teacher to judge the winner.

b

Baby photo competition

Get your class to bring in their baby photos and try guessing who is who.

Book sale

Ask family and friends to donate their old books and sell at a school fête.

c

The Big C Challenge

Help us challenge cancer in September by taking on your own school-based challenges beginning with C, and get sponsored to achieve them. Visit www.royalmarsden.org/bigC for more information.

Cake sale

Bake and sell some tasty treats and donate the proceeds to charity.

Car wash

Donate your earnings and help out family and friends at the same time.

d

Disco/dance

Dance the night away and donate the entry fee to the charity.

Dress down day

Make a donation and come to school in your own clothes for a day.

e

End-of-year party

Ask everyone to pay an entry fee and organise a competition. The winner gets a prize and the proceeds go to charity.

Egg and spoon race

Combine this with your school sports day and get parents and teachers to take part. Ask everyone to make a donation.

Extreme Olympics

Combine this with your school's sports day and get parents and teachers involved.

Book sale

Ask family and friends to donate their old books and sell at a school fête.

A-Z fundraising ideas

f

Fancy dress

Come to school dressed as your favourite superhero and make a donation.

Fête or bazaar

Ask parents and teachers to help you organise a fête or bazaar. You can even sell our charity merchandise and Christmas cards on the day.

Fancy dress

Come to school dressed as your favourite superhero.

g

Guess the...

Weight of a cake or amount of sweets in a jar. Just about anything can be turned into a guessing game.

Go without

Give up your favourite food, computer games or watching TV, and ask family and friends and the rest of the class to sponsor you.

h

Halloween Party

Serve up 'slimy jelly worms', pasta maggot stew and mozzarella eyeballs and ask guests for a donation to charity.

Holiday help

Look after someone's pets whilst they're on holiday and donate your earnings to the charity.

i

It's a knockout

Challenge your friends to a competition.

International themed day

Get your class to each bring in a small dish from a different culture. A tasty treat for lunch time.

j

Jumble sale

Get students, parents and teachers to give unwanted items and donate the proceeds.

Jewellery making

Buy your own beads and make necklaces and bracelets to sell to your friends.

k

Karaoke

Sing songs for charity and have fun at the same time.

Knit

Get knitting and sell what you make.

l

Lunch time variety performance

So you think you can sing, dance or do magic tricks? Donate the entry fee.

Learn something new

Ask family and friends to sponsor you and discover a new talent at the same time.

A-Z fundraising ideas

m

My Marsden March

Organise your own Marsden March and get sponsored to complete the route. Visit www.royalmarsden.org/mymarch for more information.

Mad hat day

Who will come to school wearing the wackiest hat? Everyone who wears a hat can make a donation to the charity.

n

Netball tournament

Challenge your teachers, bring in the spectators and let the games begin.

Nearly new sale

Ask your family and friends to donate nearly new clothes and sell them at your school fete.

o

Obstacle course

Get active and raise money for charity.

Odd jobs

Tidy your bedroom or water plants and donate your earnings.

p

Paper aeroplane competition

How far will yours fly?

Pin badges

Ask your family and friends to donate £1 for The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity pin badge, available on our website.

q

Quiz

Films, music, pop stars quiz.

Question time

It's your turn to quiz the teachers about their favourite subject. Donate per question.

r

Read

Get sponsored to read as much as you can in a given time

Roller disco

Great fun and exercise too.

Run

Get moving and involve the whole school in a fun run.

s

Spelling bee

Get the whole school involved in a spelling or times table fundraiser.

Sponsored silence

Who can stay quiet the longest?

Question time

It's your turn to quiz the teachers about their favourite subject.

A-Z fundraising ideas

t

Teachers got talent

Let your teachers entertain you.

Three legged race

It looks easy until you try it. Combine this with your school sports day and get parents and teachers to take part.

Tuck shop

Get baking and donate some treats or savoury snacks to sell at break time. Donate the proceeds to charity.

Unusual hair day

Who will create the wackiest hairstyle?

u

Unusual hair day

Who will create the wackiest hairstyle?

Unwanted gift sale

Ask family and friend for unwanted birthday or Christmas presents and sell them at your school fête.

v

Valentines day

Make cards and sell them to family and friends.

Vegetable eating

Get your family to sponsor you to eat your greens.

w

Walk

As a school, youth group or with friends and family, join in The Marsden March.

x

X Factor

Could you be the next One Direction, Leona Lewis or JLS? Show off your talent and raise money for charity.

y

Yo-yo competition

Charge an entry fee and see who can keep their Yo-yo going the longest as well as who can perform the most creative trick. The winner gets a prize.

z

Zany tie day

Design your own funky tie to wear to school.

